Senior Class History

The 1958 senior class started with four members, those being Mary Jenkins, Lily Rae Coen, Gary Howery and Duane Smith. During our remaining school years, we gained, only to lose them again, Naomi Dowers, Wilda Brown, Marjorie Houk, Earl Jenkins, Jack Handley, Bert David, and Jim Cress. Our graduating class now consists of Ronald Clapp, Lily Rae Coen, Gary Howery, Mary Jenkins, Steven Moore, Naomi Shannon and Duane Smith.

We will, of course, remember many happy events in twelve years of school, but most outstanding will be graduation, which marks another step forward in our lives. From now on we shall have to make our own way, and we have only to thank our parents and teachers for the excellent educational opportunities provided and also the preparation they have provided us to accomplish our goals.

Senior Sneak Day

Senior Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1958, being of sound mind and memory (?), do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

I, Lily Rae Coen, will my naturally curly hair to Pat.
I, Ronald Clapp, will my harem to Cleo Choate, who actually doesn't need one.
I, Naomi Shannon, will my ability to squeeze a nickel to the 1959 Senior Class.
I, Duane Smith, will my height to Jimmy Vance.
I, Gary Howery, will my '38 Chevy to Ardith Welch so I won't have to take her places.
I, Steven Moore, will my ability to be foreward to Tom Walsh.
I, Mary Jenkins, will my ability to do Algebra problems to Mr. Cosgrove.
